Ellicott-Masten Family YMCA Focuses on the Environment

(Buffalo, NY) – The Ellicott Masten Family YMCA will be hosting “Being Environmentally Savvy” on Friday April 3, 2009 from 6:00-8:00 p.m. Bring the entire family to the Ellicott-Masten Family YMCA, located at 585 William St., Buffalo, for an evening of education and entertainment.

Joining us will be agencies such as Buffalo Weed & Seed, Community Policy and Policing, New York State Department of Environmental Conservation, Erie County Wellness, RSVP Program, Law Restoration along with a host of other community organizations. We will be discussing the importance of families coming together and improving their surrounding communities. Family friendly activities such as volleyball, swimming, and games will also be held to unite our families and our community together. Snacks will also be provided. For more information, please contact the Ellicott-Masten Family Branch at 845-5440.

YMCA Buffalo Niagara is an inclusive association of people committed to a common effort to help individuals and families reach their fullest potential in terms of spirit, mind, and body. Founded locally in 1852, the YMCA is committed to significantly expanding a fiscally sound, service delivery organization which delivers high quality, market driven services to a growing Western New York constituency.

As a dynamic, charitable, organization, YMCA Buffalo Niagara has been able to assist countless youth, families, and senior citizens so that they may benefit from YMCA programming. YMCA Buffalo Niagara serves more than 100,000 people annually through its association of seven branches across Western New York, YMCA resident Camp Weona as well as 40 community based program sites. From fitness to school age child care programs, swimming lessons to camp, there is something for everyone at the YMCA. For more information on all of the programs the YMCA has to offer and our financial assistance program, please contact your local YMCA branch or visit us online at www.ymcabuffaloniagara.org.
